Requirements and visa regulations for international students

(Set by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC))

Students must attend a minimum of 80% of all scheduled classes for each term and semester.

Students under 18 years must maintain their approved accommodation/welfare arrangements. Arrangements are approved by DIAC, if parents nominate a suitable relative, or DEC International must approve the arrangements.

Students must not defer their enrolment or take extended leave without approval. Approval will only be granted in compelling or compassionate circumstances.

Students over 18 years or living with parents must notify changes of address and contact details within 7 days. Students under 18 years must have written approval to change accommodation arrangements.

Age restrictions: students must be less than 17 years when they commence Year 9, less than 18 years when they commence Year 10 and less than 19 years when they commence Year 11.

Students who apply for work rights must not work more than 40 hours per fortnight during the school term. Schools should recommend no more than 10 hours per week.

Students must remain with a NSW government school for at least 6 months from the date of enrolments.

Students must be enrolled in a full-time course of study of not less than 20 hours per week.
